Attire & Appearance

- You may wear workout/performance attire and non-marking dance shoes for the audition.
- We ask that all candidates wear black dance/yoga pants with a cropped performance top. Your outfit should complement and enhance your figure.
- Your cropped sports top should be fit to your body. No over sized shirts or tanks.
- Your hair must be styled down and make-up should be done in a "glamorous" fashion.
- A neat and polished appearance is best. Think "performance" ready!

Tips

- Be sure to bring warm-ups, as it will get cool during the waiting periods. You should also bring plenty to drink and a small snacks.
- Take a studio dance class. This will help if you have not been active in dance or fitness.
- Stretch everyday leading up to the audition. This will help for the days after the audition process.
- Practice your hair and make-up for the audition. You will be active for the entire audition process.
- Seek professional assistance from stylists/make-up artists to help you prepare for vigorous dancing and sweating.

Tentative Audition Itinerary:

A dance combination will be taught during the audition process. There may be a freestyle dance segment to showcase your personal style or special talents. Also, a Q&A segment will take place with a small panel of judges. Participants will be asked to perform the combination in small groups. Tabulations will be made throughout the day and two rounds of eliminations will take place. You will be judge by your poise, confidence, dance ability, showmanship, appearance, application, and level of physical fitness. By the end of the day, the Final Chicago Mustang Dancers will be selected for the 2010 season.

Thank you for taking interest in the Chicago Mustang Dancers. I am looking forward to meeting with everyone! Good Luck!

Cheers!
